Why you want to change the current job and want to come in our company?

As you can see everybody wants a good career so same goes with me I also want to grow and want to grab the best for me. As I came to know about your organization so searched about it and I found that this is the platform where I can grow and can show my skill set. Which I don't find in previous one. That's it

Team work or solo work?

I love to work with team because I personally experienced that having more than one people on same project means having more minds which means the work completed perfectly.

But whenever it comes on solo performance I never take back step and always give my best.

Weak point?

I have a habit to do the work in detailed manner so sometimes I delayed the work but am working upon it.

Strong point?

- (1) I know how to use available resources and use them .
- (2) I am very dedicated and self motivated person who never give up on anything until it finish
- (3) I easily make interaction and friends.
